India v Nirav Modi* [2020] City of Westminster Magistrates Court

Currently part of a team instructed to act for the requested person in this substantial white-collar extradition case. Concerns an extradition request by the Government of India relating to an allegation of a $1bn banking fraud.

R v AX & Ors* [2020] Snaresbrook Crown Court

Acting for one defendant in this multi handed case concerning allegations of conspiracy to commit trademarks offences and money laundering. Due for trial in November 2020.

Jury take just 30 minutes to acquit after four-week conspiracy to defraud trial

R v KT and Ors [2018] Blackfriars Crown Court

Acted as junior alone in a multi handed conspiracy to defraud TFL involving the misuse of staff privilege cards. After a four-week trial, the defendants were acquitted by the jury after just 30 minutes of deliberation.

Prosecution offer no evidence after extensive disclosure failings regarding cross-border issues

R v H & Ors [2018] Kingston Crown Court

Jacob appeared as lead junior for the first defendant in one of the largest prosecutions for VAT and duty evasion. The case collapsed after two years following the discovery of significant non-disclosure by the Crown and abuse of process argument on behalf of the defendants relating to the issue of cross border surveillance.

Admissibility of foreign proceedings challenged

R v S [2018] Blackfriars Crown Court

Major international conspiracy to defraud case involving the manufacture of devices used in card skimming. Led by Ali Bajwa QC, Jacob acted for the lead defendant in the four-week trial which raised significant issues regarding the Crown's approach to major disclosure exercises.

Cash detention successfully resisted

R v KK & CK [2017] Uxbridge Magistrates Court

Successfully resisted an application by the NCA for continued detention of over £75,000 seized from two West African businessmen at Heathrow.

R v MJ & Ors* [2017] Kingston Crown Court

Led junior in £10m confiscation proceedings arising from a £160m conspiracy to supply Class A drugs.

Novel cross-over of criminal, immigration and social security law

R v JH [2016] Snaresbrook Crown Court

Junior alone for one defendant in this multi-handed benefit fraud arising from a large-scale conspiracy to supply false information for EEA nationals to claim benefits in the UK.

Major bribery investigation

Serious Fraud Office v Rolls Royce [2016]

Disclosure counsel for SFO in massive bribery and corruption investigation into Rolls Royce which concluded with the highest value Deferred Prosecution Agreement since the introduction of the legislation.

Acquittal after manipulation of vulnerable defendant uncovered

R v PA [2015] Aylesbury Crown Court

The jury returned a not guilty verdict in less than an hour after Jacob's client had been prosecuted for money laundering after admitting allowing his bank account to be used for transfers which later turned out to be fraudulent.

Novel mitigation based on psychological evidence

R v JH [2015] Central Criminal Court

Jacob obtained a suspended sentence for his client in two cases that were joined for sentence following guilty pleas to conspiracy to defraud charges relating to attempted foreign currency transfers amounting to approximately £450,000. In conjunction with instructing solicitors, a detailed psychologist's report was obtained showing that the defendant had a particularly compliant nature and numerous issues arising from a traumatic personal history.

PROTEST RIGHTS

R v Hallam & Ors* [2020] Isleworth Crown Court

Jacob acts for one defendant facing a count of conspiracy to cause public nuisance along with Extinction Rebellion co-founder, Roger Hallam and others. The case relates to an allegation that the group planned to deploy drones around Heathrow Airport to disrupt flights. Instructed by Simon Natas of ITN solicitors. Due for trial in 2022.

R v Sandford & Ors* [2020] Southwark Crown Court

Acting for two defendants facing a charge of conspiracy to cause criminal damage relating to action taken by Extinction rebellion activists at the Brazilian Embassy during the 2019 fires in the Amazon Rainforest. Instructed by Simon Natas of ITN solicitors.

Extinction Rebellion* [2019] Inner London Crown Court

Jacob acted for one defendant in a trial arising from protests undertaken on the Docklands Light Railway as part of the Extinction Rebellion protests. Instructed by Mike Schwarz (at that time) of Bindmans LLP.

The Stansted 15 – activists prosecuted under law introduced after Lockerbie bombing

R v Thacker & Others* [2018] Chelmsford Crown Court

Jacob acted alone for one of the defendants in this two month trial on a charge under s.1(2)(b) of the Aviation and Maritime Security Act 1990. The case involved the novel use of a law primarily aimed at terrorism related incidents at airports against 15 activists who sought to prevent a plane used to deport migrants back to various parts of Africa from taking off. The case attracted significant media attention including coverage in BBC and Guardian.

R v Hussain* [2017] Stratford Magistrates Court

The case against a 26-year-old youth worker was dismissed by the judge following Jacob's submission of no case to answer regarding the Police Officers' lack of lawful authority to stop and detain the defendant. The case received national news coverage, see article in The Independent, and is the subject of an on-going IPCC investigation.

R v MM* [2016] Southwark Crown Court

Affray matter arising from disorder the anti austerity demonstration that took place in the wake of the 2015 general election.

R v MD* [2016] Isleworth Crown Court

Successful appeal against conviction following 2015 student demonstrations.

R v DO* [2015] Southwark Crown Court

Jacob's client was sentenced to a community order following a plea to affray arising from student demonstrations held in Central London in 2014. Following mitigation the judge made it clear he distinguished the defendant from previous student demonstrations specifically required the probation service to ensure the conditions of the community order did not interfere in any way with the defendant's employment.

R v JB & Ors* [2015] Huntingdon Magistrates Court

Successful acquittal for three defendants charged with aggravated trespass arising from a protest at the offices of Sodastream in the UK. After evidence and extensive submissions court found comprehensively for the defendants that they had planned and executed the protest with minimal disruption and acted reasonably throughout.

R v LH* [2014] Southwark Crown Court

This was an appeal concerning the legality of a search warrant in respect of forced entry to premises by Met Police in the run up to the G8 protests and the subsequent conviction of the defendant for assaulting an officer. The appeal raised novel issues concerning the effect of an invalid search warrant and access to PII material. After written and oral argument the appellant succeeded in arguing the effect of an invalid search warrant would result in his conviction being quashed if its validity could be called into question.

R v SN & Ors* [2013] Cardiff Magistrates Court

Case involving Tamil protestors charged under the Public Order Act 1986 after running on the pitch at an international cricket match. The case raised issues in respect of Art. 10 ECHR which were the subject of extensive legal argument at trial.

CRIMINAL APPEALS

Jacob's has a varied appellant practice and is regularly instructed to advise upon appeals on a range of matters relating to both conviction and sentence. Jacob is also instructed in Privy Council appeals and applications to the Supreme Court.

NOTABLE CASES

R v Trowland & Decker* [2023] EWCA Crim 919

Important appeal concerning sentencing powers under the new statutory offence of public nuisance (s.78 PCCSA 2022) in the context of direct-action protest. The appellants blocked the Dartford Crossing for 37 hours and the case received international attention (<https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/articles/cnop6ll3jjgo>).

R v KK & Others* [2020] 4 W.L.R. 63

Appeal concerning the correct approach to the issue of jury irregularities arising from a 6 month trial of 11 defendants for a variety of historic sexual offences. After a 5 month trial and two weeks of jury deliberation, a juror had conducted his own research on the internet and disclosed the existence of a previous conviction of one of the defendants to other jurors. The trial judge discharged the jury in respect of that defendant only and allowed verdicts to be deliberated upon in respect of all other defendants.

R v Rolle* [2018] Privy Council

Advising on appeal against conviction and sentence for murder in the Bahamas.

R v XY* - [2016] Court Martial Appeal Court

Led by Clare Wade in Court Martial concerning historic sexual offences. The case involved novel and complex issues in respect of the age of criminal responsibility and the jurisdiction of the Court Martial. Jacob appeared in two interlocutory appeals before the Court Martial Appeal Court arising from the same case (R v PD [2016] EWCA Crim 1904]). The case raised issues of the compatibility of service prosecutions of civilians with Article 6 ECHR, however, following a successful interlocutory appeal on a bad character issue the SPS decided to offer no evidence.

R v AS* [2016] Court of Appeal Criminal Division

Led by Rajiv Menon QC. First sentence appeals before the Lord Chief Justice concerning section 5 of the Terrorism Act 2006 following the guideline judgment in Kahar & Ors: R v Abdallah & Ors [2017] 1 Cr. App. R. (S.) 29.

INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS

Jacob regularly provides advice and representation to individuals and NGOs on issues involving human rights, national security, corruption and environmental abuses. Jacob is also instructed to advise on appeals to the Privy Council. He is a former member of the Executive Committee of the Bar Human Rights Council.

In 2015 Jacob was a Pegasus Fellow at the Centre for Constitutional Rights (CCR) in New York where he worked on habeas corpus petitions for remaining Guantanamo Inmates and the CCR's attempts to secure prosecution at the ICC of those involved in the Bush era torture program. In 2020 Jacob spent a week at Guantanamo Bay as an international observer at the trial of US v Mohammad et al (the 9/11 trial).

Jacob has also previously worked at the International Criminal Court (ICC) in The Hague for the senior legal advisor to President Song on issues of international criminal law and judicial review, particularly in the detention context. Following this, Jacob worked at the Independent Jamaican Council for Human Rights in Kingston, Jamaica where he assisted with civil actions against the police and capital appeals.

Past notable cases can be viewed below. Click here to see a list of recent notable cases.

AB* [2024]

KK & ors v AML* - (England & Wales High Court QBD)

Instructed by Leigh Day & Co, Jacob acted on behalf of 142 villagers situated around a large iron ore mine in West Africa. The claimants seek damages for personal injury, death and other damage allegedly caused by the actions and negligence of the British company that owns the mine, following local protests about their operations. The case involves complex issues around the Act of State doctrine and Rome II regulations. Led by Richard Hermer QC of Matrix Chambers. Media coverage can be found here.

PSC v HP

Instructed to draft an opinion on the legality of operations of a major international company in the Occupied Territories and potential issues relating to International Humanitarian Law.

Advising a major NGO on human rights/public law issues surrounding the introduction of a register of beneficial ownership in the UK.

Successfully acting for the appellant in an appeal in Malawi in which death sentences were commuted to life (The Republic v Mkwinda & Tomasi)

PRISONERS' RIGHTS

Jacob has appeared in a large number of parole hearings and other prison related matters. He has particular experience of representing those who are serving sentences for terrorism related offences.

NOTABLE CASES

Past notable cases can be viewed below. Click here to see a list of recent notable cases.

IM - [2019] Parole

IPP parole case involving very substantial use of security information and admissibility arguments regarding counter terrorism policing assessments.

IM - [2017] Parole

Representing post tariff IPP prisoner in parole hearing which raised issues in respect of prison intelligence and Extremist Risk Guidance assessments.

JF - [2016] Parole

Successfully acted for client who was convicted for part in Al Qaida plot in 2003. His client was deemed suitable for release and the panel acceded to submissions in respect of the disproportionate nature of a number of the terrorism offender licencing conditions.

PUBLIC INQUIRIES

Jacob is instructed by PA Duffy Solicitors on behalf of the Northern Ireland Covid Bereaved Families for Justice (NIBCFFJ) at the ongoing Covid 19 Public Inquiry.

BACKGROUND

In 2012-2013 Jacob worked as a Judicial Assistant to Lord Kerr of Tonaghmore at the UK Supreme Court. During his time there Jacob worked closely on a wide range of cases including some of the most significant to come before the Court in recent years, such as Smith v MOD [2013] UKSC 41 (extra territorial application of Human Rights Act and combat immunity), Bank Mellat v HM Treasury [2013] UKSC 38 and [2013] UKSC 39 (proportionality, fairness and closed material procedures in the application of financial sanctions), and the Privy Council case of The Queen v Lundy (New Zealand murder appeal involving novel brain tissue analysis).

Prior to coming to the Bar, Jacob spent four years at renowned human rights firm, Birnberg Peirce and Partners. During his time there he worked primarily on national security cases, particularly terrorist asset-freezing, Special Immigration Appeals Commission cases and Control Orders, as well as a range of criminal and civil work. Throughout his time at the firm he also worked on the case of Eddie Gilfoyle, considered by many to be one of the longest miscarriage of justice cases in British history (see Jacob's article in Issue 65 of Socialist Lawyer).
